

Information letter No. 5

CHANGES IN THE LIBRARY'S STRUCTURE

Since November 2018, the library's Acquisition Division is merged into the Information Services Division.

If you wish to order new books, journals, or databases, then you can still contact the subject librarian of your speciality at the Information Services Division (LIB-221).

Alternatively, you can place an order via the library's web form: Ordering new books.

Kai Kalvik, our chief subscriptions officer, who was previously the subject librarian of the Estonian Maritime Academy, will process the orders.

The Head of Information Services Division Taimi Nurmiste will take over the duties of the Estonian Maritime Academy's subject librarian.

Mare Soidla will be responsible for the management and editing of the graduation theses' records in the Digital Collection and offering consultations to the staff on submitting theses to the collection.

EXHIBITIONS

01.11–31.12 in the library's glass gallery – “100 Books of the Century about Tallinn University of Technology”

31.10–22.11 on the library's 2nd floor – Professor Emeritus Priit Kulu's personal exhibition “Copper, gold and iron were the first...”

Introduction of the exhibition on 7 November at 14.00.

Information Services Division
Tallinn University of Technology Library
LIB-221, tel. 620 3554

01.11.2018