

Information letter no. 4

NEW

- Starting from September 8, the library will be open longer on Saturdays: 11:00-18:00.
- Primo e-resources portal is now available for use in personalized mode. Sign in with your TTÜ UNI-ID.

The personalized portal offers:

- adding interesting records to the Marked list
- creating favorites lists  ADD LABELS
- saving your searches and getting alerts about relevant new resources

EXHIBITIONS

- our new books and journals display is updated every Monday
- the exhibition 100 books of the century about Tallinn University of Technology in the library's glass gallery is open until October 31
- an exhibition of sea paintings until September 28 at the library's 2nd floor reading area, paintings by Mari-Anne Meister who is the Coordinator of Defence and Security Studies at TTÜ Research Administration Office

GOOD TO KNOW

Ordering new books, incl. e-books and textbooks

All books available in our library can be found in the online catalogue ESTER. If you cannot find the required book or if there are too few copies of some particular book, please contact our subject librarians at the Information Services Division (LIB-221). Subject librarians can suggest publishers and databases where the requested book or its electronic version can be found.

You can also place an order through the library's web form: Ordering new books

We are looking forward to your visit to the library to extend your library card.

Best wishes for the new academic year!

Information Services Division
LIB-221, tel. 620 3554

01.09.2018